Attantic Electropean: Gentlemen—for the past five years my wife has been a sufferer from dyspopula, to completely did the disease make a wreek of her former soft that life was almost despaired of. Her nervous system was almost entirely destroyed, and the suightest noise would throw her into many has pain, which would hast for hours. Medical that failed to bring any rejef.

Through the recommendation of an eminent divine we were induced to try the Elect.opoise. After a persistent use of the instrument, the effect has been wonderful. Her nervous system has been restored to its almost nermal condition; her digestion is wonderfully improved; she is rapidly emining in Besh; and, upon the whole, is making a rapid recovery, which speaks volumes for the wonderful constitute powers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered hopeless. If any are keptical on the subject, let them try the Electropoise, and its wonderful powers will quickly dispelall doubt. Yours truly, W.M. PROPST.

> The Difficulty at Brandy. BEANDY STATION, Va. Nov. 23rd, 1891

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Will you kindly permit me, through the columns of your daily issue, to correct the report that has been spread broad-oset throughout the country, concerning the difficulty that occured in this village on Tuesday afternoon last, the 17th ins'. The facts in the case are briefly thess:

On the morning of that day Judson H. Brown, a white man, living about two or two and a-haif miles north of here, came to the a lise, and (" last d) by appointment, man Alexander Thumpson, a negro will makes his home here, and they took one or we drinks regether, but at no ilms were drugk. Brown had made several purchases on credit at Massis. Part Bros, store on that morning after which he went away and about noon be, in company with the cogro. Thompson, returned to the clora and together they bought some chees out orackers, mean itself out the strate and the manage if the treatment out and the manage if the treatment out and the manage if the treatment out not effect a tree. Guarantees issued only by ceating homselves on a shee box in the wore near the front entrence, to eat them. They

as it is believed they had pleaned the a-tack on Mr. Parr when they first mut in the morning. This action of Mr. Parr, in re-moving the cheese and crackers, they pro-fersed to consider an insuit and demanded the return of their money, which was given back to them. They then left and visited several other stores in the place to purchase cartridges for a 32 calibre American Euli Dog pistol; they failed, however, as they also did in trying to persuade some other colored men to join in an astack on Mr Parr. They then returned to Mesers. Parr's store, and as they resched the front porch they began a trade of abuse, using the most probate and indecent expressions. Mr. Pare bad been notified in the meantime by one of the colored men whom Brown and Thompson had eshed to join them, that the men had aworn "they were coming back to knock hell out of Parror any of his friends." Mr. Parr in place of arming himself and meeting them as they deserved, met them in a conciliatory manner and tried to reason with them, but Brown at once aiecked bim with a volley of abuse, threatening to cut his "c-1 heart ont with a knife he held in his hand. Chis was more than Mr. Parr could take and although enticely unarmed ne pitched in and gave Brown a thrasbing,

Mr. Parr only receiving a slight wound on his hand from Brown's knife; after giving Brown what he thought was enough he refe nim and started into his store, but Brown again made an attack on him with the knife, and the second time Mr. Parr knocked him down with his fist and cheked him simos into insensibility. The negro, during these proceedings, was kept at bay by two of Mr. Parr's friende-Dr. S. R. McClanahan and Mr T F. Krie. In the meantime two more of Mr. Part's friends-Mr. L J. Embrey and Mr. E. L. Grymes- made their appearance on the scene and Mr. E abrey procured an aze belve with which he struck, or struck at Thompson, but if hir at all to was not burt, and in a moment Thompson had wrestd the helve from Enbrey and gave him we severe blows on the bead and face, and then with the egility and fi-reeness of s young tiger, he turned on Grymes and gave him a stanning blow on the back of the head as he was going into the store, which brought him down. Things were getting tco warm on the outside and all hands enabed for the inside of the store for safety from the negro's club. This, however, ended the exchange of blows, although both the negro and Brown made a vicious attack on the store door, threatening to demoitsh both the door and windows with large rocks that they held in their hands. To sum up the injured, no one was seriously hurt, al-though Mr. Part had been alightly cut on he hand by Brown's knife, and Mesers. Embrey and Grymes slightly injured by the axe belve in the negro's hands. Both the jusice and constable for this section were absent and no arrests were made until the constable, who had been telephoned to, reurned and the Commonwealth's Attorney, J. L. Jeffries, from Colpeper, arrived with the warrants. The negro Thompson was arrested at once, but for want of vigilance on the part of bisguards, he made his escape and is yet at large. Brown was arrested the next morning, and after a hearing be-fore Justice D. M. Gordon, he was put under $250 ball for the action of the grand jury. To correct any mistaken impression the different reports of this affair may have been made detrimental to Mr. Wm. J. Parr, I will say, on my own responsibility, that there is no more peaceable and law abiding citizen in this county than hels. Heattends strictly to his own business, being not only a firstclass business man, but one of the most energetic citizens cur county affords. While he is no craven, he is of the disposition that will exhaust all reasonable means to settle a difficulty before he would lower himself by engaging in a brawl with any one. He is a much smaller man than either Brown or the negro, and under the circumstances would bave been justified in using arms in his de-By some of our citizens this outbreak was not un ooked for, as it has been arcerteined that for some time meetings of a secret character have been hald at a negro's house near here at which this men B con has persiet paied, the object of the are reserved for the purpose of boating any of the wearther class of white men who any of the members of this society might have a gradge against —something on the order of the Mollie Ma-

Thompson was the leader of this society.

As Themtson is badly needed in this county I will here, in conclusion, give a description of him to aid in his sporthuson. He is about 5 feet 11 to be in height, stoutly ril actively built, of ringer cake color, chan shaven except moustache, and rather of pleasant appears not have a waggering gait when walking ard is very solite, pariently one mouth.
